RE: Warning Letter
FPPC Case No. 090623; Ryan Chin

Dear Mr. Chin:

The Fair Political Practices Commission (FPPC) enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act (the Act) found in Government Code Section 81000, and following. The Act requires that public officials file Statements of Economic Interests (Form 700) when they assume office, annually thereafter and within 30 days of leaving their position.

The Enforcement Division of the FPPC received a non-filer referral from the Technical Assistance Division for your failure to file your Leaving Office Statement of Economic Interests. Prior to contact by the Enforcement Division, the Technical Assistance Division informed us that you have since filed your Statement.

We have decided to close this case. Your failure to file the required statement is a violation of the Act. (Gov. Code Section 87204.) This letter serves as a written warning. The information in this matter will be retained and may be considered should an enforcement action become necessary based on future conduct or newly discovered information.

Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act in the future may result in an enforcement action against you, including monetary penalties of up to $5,000 for each violation.

If you disagree with our determination that you violated the Act, please contact Jeanette Turvill in writing postmarked within 14 days of the date of this letter.

The FPPC publishes forms and manuals to facilitate compliance with the provisions of the Act. If you need forms or a manual, or guidance regarding your obligations, please call the FPPC's Technical Assistance Division at (916) 322-5660, Monday through Friday, between 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. Please also visit our website at www.fppc.ca.gov.

If you have questions regarding this matter, please contact Jeanette Turvill at (916) 322-8194.

Sincerely
